
News

Vasco da Gama Movement launches new project

31.03.2021

Vasco da Gama Movement, network for young and future family doctors, launches a new Bridge Project for medical students and young doctors. More information and registration form in the attached file.

VdGM Bridge Project

Podcasts tips on communication (not only) during pandemic situation

March 10, 2021

Please find below links to interesting and helpful podcast on various medical topics with focus on communication:

<https://media.qmplus.qmul.ac.uk/channel/The+Clin+Comm+Podcast/162031521>

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/sounds/play/m000synh>

Report on meeting of our Division's instructors and friends

July 20, 2020

The faculty published a report on our meeting, including photographs, in the news. The report can be found here .

Personnel assistance to health professionals and medical facilities

April 23, 2020

Students of the Third Faculty of Medicine at Charles University organize assistance to health professionals and medical facilities.

If you would like to use such assistance, log in by filling out the following form: <https://forms.gle/gE2aZAAdRoTX3udm7>

Carry on during the crisis

April 21, 2020

In the report of German-French station, Arte.tv our assistant, MUDr. Pavel Martínek, who works as a general practitioner in Germany, on how the current situation and the closing of the borders affected the life in the borderlands of the Czech Republic, Germany and Poland.

The report can be viewed in German and French on the link <https://www.arte.tv/de/videos/091205-006-A/re-weitermachen-in-der-krise/>

Establishment of the Division of general practice

April 1, 2020

On April 1, 2020, the Division of General Practice was officially established. As of the academic year 2020/2021, the Division will provide students of the 5th year of the course General Practice.