
Stefan Lindal Theofilakis, M.D., and Yngve Andreas Leirfall, M.D., awardees of the extraordinary prize of the Rector of Charles University

The extraordinary award of the Rector of Charles University for exceptional achievements in the field of culture for the year 2019 has been granted to MUDr. Stefan Lindal Theofilakis and MUDr. Yngve Andreas Leirfall graduates of the Third Faculty of Medicine. Together, they founded and conducted the faculty's choirs 'A Patella' and 'Clavicula'. Over the eight years of activity, more than 120 students of twenty different nationalities have joined and performed. Both choirs represent Charles University at many academic and public events. Both awardees are sending their greetings from Norway in a video below.
