FOR STUDENTS OF THE THIRD FACULTY OF MEDICINE, CHARLES UNIVERSITY

The Academic Senate of the Third Faculty of Medicine, Charles University, pursuant to Section 27(1)(b) and Section 33(2)(e) of Act No. 111/1998 Coll., on Higher Education Institutions and on Amendments and Supplements to Other Acts (the Higher Education Act), as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "Higher Education Act"), and pursuant to Article 10, paragraph 1, subparagraph b of the Statutes of the Third Faculty of Medicine, Charles University, as amended, has adopted the following Disciplinary Rules for Students of the Third Faculty of Medicine, Charles University, as an internal regulation:

Article 1

Introductory Provisions

1. These Disciplinary Rules for Students of the Third Faculty of Medicine of Charles University, in accordance with Article 1, paragraph 2, of the Disciplinary Rules for Students of Charles University, regulate certain details concerning the Disciplinary Committee of the Third Faculty of Medicine of Charles University (hereinafter referred to as the "Disciplinary Committee") and the rules governing the proceedings of this committee at the Third Faculty of Medicine of Charles University (hereinafter referred to as the "Faculty").
2. Disciplinary offenses committed by students enrolled at the Third Faculty of Medicine of Charles University (hereinafter referred to as "the University"), the imposition of sanctions for such offenses, and disciplinary proceedings are governed by the Higher Education Act[1] , the Administrative Procedure Code, and the Disciplinary Code for University Students.

Article 2

Faculty Disciplinary Committee

1. The Disciplinary Committee has 8 members. Half of the committee's members are students.[2]
2. Members of the Disciplinary Committee are appointed and dismissed by the dean with the approval of the faculty's Academic Senate.
3. The term of office for members of the Disciplinary Committee is 3 years and begins upon appointment.
4. Membership in the Disciplinary Committee terminates:
   a) upon the expiration of the term of office,
   b) before the end of the term of office
      i) on the date specified in the dismissal,
      ii) on the date of termination of membership in the faculty's academic community,

[1] In particular, Sections 64 through 66 and Section 69 of the Higher Education Act.

[2] The second sentence of Section 31(1) of the Higher Education Act.

iii) on the date of delivery of a written statement in which the member resigns from the Disciplinary Committee.

5. The dean shall immediately appoint a new member to fill a vacancy on the Disciplinary Committee arising under paragraph 4(b) for the remainder of the term of office of the member whose position has become vacant.
6. The Disciplinary Committee is supported by the Academic Affairs Office of the Dean's Office.

Article 3

Joint Proceedings

1. The Disciplinary Committee may, on its own initiative or at the request of a party to the proceedings, consolidate various proceedings within its jurisdiction if they concern the same subject matter, are otherwise substantively related, or involve the same parties, provided that the nature of the matter, the purpose of the proceedings, or the protection of the rights or legitimate interests of the parties do not preclude such consolidation.
2. Joint proceedings may be initiated, or proceedings already initiated may be consolidated, if required by the principle of procedural economy, provided that this does not jeopardize the purpose of the proceedings or the rights of the parties, and does not pose a risk of harm to any of the parties.
3. The provisions of Section 140 of the Administrative Procedure Code shall apply mutatis mutandis to the conduct of joint proceedings.
4. The Disciplinary Commission shall decide on the consolidation of proceedings, as well as on the possible exclusion of a case from joint proceedings for separate consideration, by a resolution, which shall be recorded in the case file.

Article 4

Rules of Procedure of the Disciplinary Commission

1. If the Disciplinary Commission receives a motion to initiate disciplinary proceedings against a member of the Disciplinary Commission, that member shall be excluded from the deliberations and decision-making regarding that matter.
2. The Commission may, upon the motion of a member of the Disciplinary Commission, decide on individual cases by secret ballot. In all other cases, members of the Disciplinary Commission vote publicly.

Article 5

Expungement of a Disciplinary Offense

The period for expunging a disciplinary offense is 2 years.

Article 6

Transitional Provision

1. Disciplinary proceedings initiated prior to the effective date of these Rules shall be completed in accordance with these Rules and the University's Disciplinary Rules for Students.
2. The terms of office of members of the Disciplinary Committee appointed prior to the effective date of these Rules remain unaffected.

3. The institution of substitution under the Disciplinary Code for University Students dated December 14, 2016, and under the previous code is hereby abolished.
4. In accordance with Article 2, paragraph 2 of these rules, the dean shall appoint the remaining members of the disciplinary committee no later than the effective date of these rules.

Article 7

Final Provisions

1. The Disciplinary Regulations for Faculty Students approved by the University Academic Senate on June 23, 2017, are hereby repealed.
2. These Rules were approved by the Faculty Academic Senate on May 12, 2026
3. These Regulations shall take effect on the date of their approval by the University Academic Senate[3] .
4. These Regulations shall take effect on October 1, 2026.
