

JÖNKÖPING UNIVERSITY

JÖNKÖPING UNIVERSITY, SWEDEN SUMMER SCHOOL 2019

UNDERGRADUATE LEVEL COURSES

TAUGHT IN ENGLISH

Date: June 3 to 28, 2019 (4 weeks)

Purchasing Logistics with a Global Perspective 10 ECTS credits

The aim of the course is to give advanced knowledge of logistics in purchasing and supply chain management with a global perspective. The focus is on the purchasing functions importance for the company result. The course includes elements such as:

- Purchasing and strategic sourcing
- Supply chain management, Globalization and Incoterms
- Initiate supplier relations: define needs, specify and document
- Assess supplier portfolio, select suppliers
- Prepare negotiations regarding TCO and cost break-down
- Legal aspects, contracts, delivery and payment terms and contract management
- Supplier relations, Systems for managing supplier relationships (SRM)
- Sustainability and Corporate social responsibility (CSR)
- Purchase orders, performance measurements (KPIs), and supplier evaluation
- Supplier development process
- Terminate supplier relations

Global Perspective on Health and Welfare 10 ECTS credits

The aim of the course is to provide knowledge and understanding of the global situation related to health and welfare. The course includes elements such as:

- Cultural aspects related to health and welfare
- Impact of common diseases/disabilities in diverse cultural contexts from different professional perspective.

- Complexity and impact of social determinants of health in different countries
- Socio-economic factors and their influence on health and the relevance for different profession's perspective
- Perspectives on health and welfare in community development

THE PROGRAMME INCLUDES:

Pick-up service

Accommodation

Company visits

Services on campus. Access to library services, Campus Arena- fitness and recreation center, wi-fi, 24 hours/day access to the University facilities.

Social and Cultural Activities. Through the rich programme students will gain insights into the Swedish culture. The activities include welcome lunch, visit to one of Sweden's best-preserved castles from the 16th century in Vadstena, a trip to Gränna a charming city where popular peppermint candy canes are being handmade, excursions, Swedish Mid-summer celebration and much more!

WHY SWEDEN?

- Beautiful nature
- Sustainability and the environment are in focus
- Equality and diversity are central to Swedish society
- International student friendly
- Entrepreneurial and international
- High standard of living

APPLICATION DEADLINE: April 1, 2019.

Web site: www.ju.se/summerschool

Contact: summerschool@ju.se

Useful information, pictures, video and students' testimonials can be found at www.ju.se/summerschool

Like us!  www.facebook.com/jusummerschool

"I would definitely recommend JU Summer School, the whole experience was just fantastic. It was very exciting experiencing the Swedish culture."

Alyssa Yankowski, University of Central Florida, USA

