

Charles University

Beth Israel Lahey Health
Lahey Hospital &
Medical Center

Value and Quality in Health Care: Czech and American Perspectives

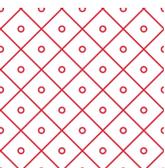

Five News in Neurology – “Wine and Cheese seminar”

10. 10. 2023

Vlastenecký sál (Karolinum)

Charles University
Ovocný trh 560/5, Prague

Please, confirm your attendance
by September 29 via this link.

PART 1:

Value and Quality in Health Care: Czech and American Perspectives

9.00-9.30 | Introduction

Milena Králičková, MD, PhD
(Rector, Charles University, Prague)

Tomáš Fiala, MD, MBA
(Member of the Senate of the Parliament of the Czech Republic)

Dale Kreisher
(Counselor for Public Affairs, U.S. Embassy in Prague)

Irena Maříková, MD, MBA
(Director, Institute for Postgraduate Medical Education, Prague)

Susan Moffatt-Bruce, MD, PhD, FACS, FRCSC, MBA
(President, Lahey Hospital Medical Center, Burlington, MA, USA)

9.30-10.00 | Getting to Value in Health Care Delivery

Susan Moffatt-Bruce, MD, PhD, FACS, FRCSC, MBA
(President, Lahey Hospital Medical Center, Burlington, MA, USA)

10.00-10.30 | LEAD @ Lahey – Innovation in Medical Education

Anne C. Mosenthal MD, FACS, MAMSE
(Chief Academic Officer, Lahey Hospital Medical Center, Regional Executive Dean – UMass Chan Medical School – Lahey)

10.30-11.00 Coffee break

11.00-11.30 | Defining Quality in Health Care: a Population Health Perspective

Andrew Popelka Jr., MD, MBA, CPE
(Medical Director of Population Health, Lahey Hospital and Medical Center, Clinical Assistant Professor, Tufts University School of Medicine)

11.30-12.00 | How to Increase Efficiency and Quality of the Czech Health Care System: an economist's perspective

Jakub Hlávka, PhD
(Assistant Professor of Public Economics, Masaryk University, Brno, Adjunct Clinical Associate, Professor, Keck School of Medicine, University of Southern California, USA, Founder, Initiative for Efficient Healthcare, Czech Republic)

PART 1:

12.00-12.45 Lunch

12.45-13.15 | How to Increase Effectivity and Quality of Czech Health Care System: a physician perspective

Petr Smejkal, MD

(IKEM Praha, infectious disease and infection control chief, National Institute for Pandemic management, Ministry of Health, Czech Republic, Charles University, Department of Epidemiology, MDI Hospital, Bar Harbor, Maine, USA, Hospitalist, infection control)

13.15-13.30 | How to Increase Effectivity and Quality of Czech Health Care System: medicine's developer perspective

Kuuno Vaher

(Cluster Country Director, Central Europe – Czech Republic, Slovakia and Hungary, AstraZeneca)

13.30-13.45 | Achieving quality and international accreditation of the medical students

Jan Polák, MD, PhD

(Vice-rector for Quality Assurance and Accreditation, Charles University, Chair, Department of Pathophysiology, Third Faculty of Medicine, Charles University, Prague, Quality Assurance and International Accreditation of Medical Study Programs)

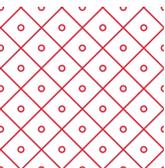

13.45-14.15 | International and National Hospital Accreditation – 25 years after

David Marx, MD, PhD

(Director, Czech National Accreditation Committee, Prague, Consultant, Joint Commission International)

14.15-14.45 | Round table and discussion

14.45-15.00 Coffee break

PART 2:

Five New Things in Neurology – “Wine and Cheese seminar”

15.00-15.15 | Introduction

Diana Apetauerova, MD and Robert Rusina, MD, PhD

15.15-15.35 | Five New Things in Neuromuscular Neurology

Michal Vytopil, MD, PhD

(Vice Chair, Division of Neurology, Lahey Hospital and Medical Center, Director, Electromyography Laboratory, Lahey Hospital and Medical Center, Program Director, Clinical Neurophysiology fellowship, Lahey Hospital and Medical Center, Clinical Assistant Professor, Tufts University School of Medicine)

15.35-15.55 | Five New Things in Neurocritical Care

Joseph D. Burns, MD

(Director, Neurocritical Care, Lahey Hospital and Medical Center, Medical Director, Neurosciences Critical Care and Progressive Care Unit, Lahey Hospital and Medical Center, Associate Program Director, Tufts Neurology Residency, Associate Professor of Neurology and Neurosurgery, Tufts University School of Medicine)

15.55-16.15 | Five New Things in Movement Disorders

Diana Apetauerova, MD

(Director, Movement Disorders Program, Lahey Hospital and Medical Center, Director, Research Department, Neurology, Lahey Hospital and Medical Center, Clinical Associate Professor, Tufts University School of Medicine, Visiting Associate Professor, Charles University)

16.15-16.35 | Five New Things in Dementia and Cognitive Neurology

Robert Rusina, MD, PhD

(Head, Department of Neurology, 3rd Faculty of Medicine, Charles University and Thomayer University Hospital, Prague)

16.35-17.00 | Round table, Discussion and Closing

Partner of the Event

Charles University
Ovocný trh 560/5
Prague 1, 116 36
Czech Republic